LBQQ:

Lesbian/Bisexual/Queer/Questioning
Women's Discussion Group

This group offers a safe place for all women of diverse racial/ethnic/cultural backgrounds to dialogue with other women about their experiences that may include living on the margins and in the closet.

Topics may include relationship beginnings and endings, coming out to self and others, starting families and parenting, social networking, community events, intersecting marginalized identities, creating and participating in healthy Lesbian /bisexual/queer culture.

Thursdays | 5:30pm – 7:00pm
Women's Resource Center, 411 Olpin Union
Call 801-581-8030 for information and registration.

This group is open to women in the community who are not affiliated with The University of Utah and welcomes all people who identify as women.

The University of Utah seeks to provide equal access to its programs, services, and activities for people with disabilities. If you will need accommodations reasonable prior notice needs to be given to the Women's Resource Center and to the Center for Disability Services, 162 Olpin Union Building at 581-5020 (V/TDD) to make arrangements for accommodations. Such accommodations will be afforded based on the specific disability and as agreed in writing. This statement in no way asks that a person identify her- or himself as having a disability.
