

Finding Your Voice: Women of Color Group

Are you a woman of color who is struggling to work in a predominantly White campus or community? As women of color who come from a variety of backgrounds (e.g., African American/Black, Latina/Hispanic, Asian American, Pacific Islander, American Indian, Middle Eastern/Arab American, and others), we have experiences that are unique to our individual backgrounds but also hold many common connections.

This discussion group can provide a safe place to share some of your struggles as well as some of our ways of coping, strengths, and resources.

Mondays | 5:30pm – 7:00pm
Women's Resource Center, 411 Olpin Union
Call 801-581-8030 for information and registration

The University of Utah seeks to provide equal access to its programs, services, and activities for people with disabilities. If you will need accommodations reasonable prior notice needs to be given to the Women's Resource Center and to the Center for Disability Services, 162 Olpin Union Building at 581-5020 (V/TDD) to make arrangements for accommodations. Such accommodations will be afforded based on the specific disability and as agreed in writing. This statement in no way asks that a person identify her- or himself as having a disability.
